ARTICLE B. - OFFENSES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE AND SAFETY

7-6B-8: - Escapes.

A.

Aiding Escape. It shall be unlawful for any person to rescue, or to aid or abet, offer or endeavor to assist another person to escape from custody or confinement.

B.

Escaping from Jail. It shall be unlawful for any person who is confined in the jail or other place of confinement, to escape or attempt to escape therefrom.

(Code 1985, § 7-6B-8)

7-6B-9: - Begging.

It shall be unlawful for any person to go about from door to door of private homes or commercial or business establishments, or to place himself in or upon any public way or public place to beg or receive alms for himself or for another.

(Code 1985, § 7-6B-9)

7-6B-10: - False Reports and Alarms.

A.

To Law Enforcement Authorities.

1.

Falsely Incriminating Another. It shall be unlawful for a person to knowingly give false information to any law enforcement officer with purpose to implicate another.

2.

Fictitious Reports. It shall be unlawful for a person to:

a.

Report to law enforcement authorities an offense or other incident within their concern knowing that it did not occur; or

b.

Pretend to furnish such authorities with information relating to an offense or incident when he knows he has no information relating to such offense or incident.

3.

Fictitious Names and Addresses. It shall be unlawful for a person to give a false name or address or age to a law enforcement officer with the intent of concealing or hiding one's own real name and/or address and/or age.

B.

To Agencies of Public Safety. It shall be unlawful for a person to knowingly cause a false alarm of fire or other emergency to be transmitted to or within any organization, official or volunteer, for dealing with emergencies involving danger to life or property.

(Code 1985, § 7-6B-10)

7-6B-11: - Police and Fire Alarm System Reports.

A.

It shall be unlawful for a person to knowingly cause a false alarm for fire, police, or other emergency to be transmitted to or within any organization, official or volunteer.

B.

It shall be unlawful for a person to knowingly cause a false alarm for fire, police, or other emergency to be transmitted to a public safety agency.

C.

False alarm shall mean any alarm signal originating from an alarm device, dial alarm, audible alarm device or central alarm station to which a public safety agency responds and which results from:

1.

False activation where the activator knows or should reasonably know that such alarm is false, including reporting a robbery where no actual or attempted robbery has occurred or reporting a burglary where there is no evidence to substantiate an attempted or forced entry to the premises or reporting a fire or medical emergency where there is no