ARTICLE F. - OFFENSES RELATING TO PROPERTY

7-6F-12: - Graffiti Prohibited.

It shall be unlawful to deface public or private property by means of inscription, word, or figure, done by painting, drawing, writing, etching, or carving with paint, spray paint, ink, knife, etching equipment or any similar method without the permission of the property owner.

(Code 1985, § 7-6F-11; Ord. 99-43)

7-6F-13: - Parental Responsibility for Graffiti Offenses.

A parent or guardian of a minor commits an offense if he or she knowingly permits the minor to apply graffiti.

(Ord. 99-43)

7-6F-14: - Distribution of Handbills.

7-6F-14-1: - Restrictions.

A.

No person shall distribute, place or sell any commercial or noncommercial handbill, advertisement or similar literature in or upon any street, sidewalk, any private parking lot open for public use, or any other public place within the City; provided, however, a person may distribute free handbills directly to persons who are willing to accept them.

B.

No person shall distribute any handbill or similar literature upon any inhabited private premises except by placing said items in a manner as to prevent them from being blown or drifted about said premises. Mail boxes shall not be used for distribution when such distribution is prohibited by Federal regulations. No person shall distribute any handbill or similar literature at any vacant premises.

C.

No person shall distribute any handbill, solicit funds, distribute literature or sell an article upon any real property if requested not to do so by any occupant of said property or by any sign posted on said property instructing against such act or action.

(Ord. 98-39)

7-6F-14-2: - Handbills; Exceptions.

The provisions of this Chapter shall not apply to the proper distribution of mail by the United States Post Office. It shall also not apply to the delivery of newspapers which are legal publications; provided, that newspapers shall be distributed in a manner which prevents their being carried away by the elements and provided further that the property has not been posted instructing against such act or action.
