c. James Jordan, an Englewood resident, was not present to address Council regarding the proposed South Metro Fire Rescue Authority contract.

7. Recognition of Unscheduled Public Comment. (This is an opportunity for the public to address City Council. There is an expectation that the presentation will be conducted in a respectful manner. Council may ask questions for clarification, but there will not be any dialogue. Please limit your presentation to three minutes. Time for unscheduled public comment may be limited to 45 minutes, and if limited, shall be continued to General Discussion.)

a. Jeffrey Justice, a Longmont resident, spoke about the 7-Eleven incident, occurring on May 16, 2014, in which a loose dog killed another dog. He objected to the vicious dog being returned to the owner. He does not know of the conditions placed upon the dog or the owner. There is too much unknown. He believes the dog owner should be held responsible.

b. Patricia Miller, an Englewood resident, spoke about the 7-Eleven dog incident. She reviewed Title 7 of the Englewood Municipal Code. She is afraid because this occurred in her neighborhood and she found out about it from a flyer. She has had her dog attacked by another dog prior to this event. She believes that the owners should be held accountable.

c. Steve Scott, an Englewood resident, spoke about the UNITE Englewood service last weekend and the speakers. The speakers spoke about being good neighbors, about being an uninformed neighbor, and the Next Door program.

d. Elaine Hults, an Englewood resident, spoke about problems she had with the headphones at tonight's meeting. She also asked how the Fire Department has gotten to where they are today.
