a. Scott Yeates, a Denver resident, representing the SW Development Group, discussed a possible project at the General Iron Works site. Foundry One is the proposed name for the project. Mr. Yeates envisions it being a mixed use, with residential and retail. Shockworks would be the architectural firm. There could be future redevelopment as the project moves along. Mr. Yeates would like to have the current CHFA letter revised by Council.

b. Bryant Winslow, an Englewood resident, asked that Council revise the letter for Foundry One. He believes the proposed project will provide affordable residential opportunities on the General Iron Works site. Mr. Winslow supports Mr. Yeates project and thinks the product is class A. He is excited about it being a catalyst for the area. There has been limited interest at this site prior to Mr. Yeates project. Mr. Winslow hopes to be the long term owner.
