a. Garnett Stewart, an Englewood resident, addressed Council regarding green vehicles. Ms. Stewart explained the benefit to Englewood if the City purchases green vehicles. c. Barb Chumley, President of Englewood Unleashed, addressed Council regarding the Sprinkles and Biscuits Ice Cream Social. c. Doug Cohn, an Englewood resident, pointed out that during the Englewood Environmental conversation, in Study Session, eight properties owned by EEF were not discussed. He voiced his concern that Council approved a non-final contract with Denver Fire. He also expressed his concern that Council was bypassing the City Manager and talking to employees directly.

d. Eileen Sargent, a Centennial resident and a member of Englewood Unleashed, thanked Joe Sack, Lorna Elliott, Eric Keck, and Jill Wilson. They did a lot of work to get the event set up. She was disheartened with the roadblocks they faced. There were a lot of issues. They are hoping, with the meeting tomorrow, that they can have a better relationship between Englewood Unleashed and the City of Englewood.

e. Ann Cockrell, an Englewood resident, addressed Council about going green in Englewood with vehicles that will use less fuel and have lower maintenance costs. She encouraged Council to study this issue.

f. Elaine Hultz, an Englewood resident, said she found out on the Nextdoor website that the City wants to move City Hall. She stated she doesn’t feel confident in any of Council’s decisions moving forward. Some are not too practical. Transparency is not your area of expertise, she said.
