Englewood Schools’ bond would rebuild elementary schools

$100 million issue to be decided by voters in November

BY PETER JONES
NEWS EDITOR

Englewood Schools would rebuild its elementary schools if a bond measure on the November ballot passes.

That is the unanimous conclusion reached last week after the Board of Education consulted with a team of architects and planners it hired to help determine whether the district should renovate or rebuild if voters approve a $100 million bond aimed at the district’s elementary schools.

“Exploring all options, the board came to the conclusion that rebuilding the schools was the best option to ensure optimal safety and learning environments for years to come,” Englewood Schools said in a press announcement.

Superintendent Wendy Rubin said she was satisfied with the conclusion.

“I’m so grateful for the participation of the group,” she said. “I feel so encouraged and so excited about this opportunity. Our district has done a great job of maintaining our schools, but they were built 60 or more years ago. At some point, we must be the ones to say that it’s time for something new.”

The bond issue comes five years after Englewood residents approved a tax boost to create the state-of-the-art Englewood Campus’s combined middle school-high school. The bond issue is the result of a recommendation from the district’s Facilities Long-Range Planning Committee, comprised of nearly 30 parents, community members and district staff.
“That committee came to the conclusion that they very much honored and celebrated our small neighborhood schools and would recommend that we pursue a bond this fall to either renovate or rebuild,” said Tena Prange, president of the Board of Education. “This bond will be very specific to our elementary schools, as well as our preschool.”

According to the school district, the committee’s recommendation for a $100 million bond was based on more than 20 hours of school tours, several town-hall meetings and an online survey.

Priorities outlined by the facilities committee include safe schools, ADA compliance, HVAC updates, new fire systems and expanded kitchen and cafeteria space.

Other needs included an early-childhood center, storage, maximized parking, safe and attractive outdoor space, “flexible” classrooms, modernized bathrooms and safe arrival-dismissal areas.
New charter school taking applications

TriCity Academy moves forward toward opening in August 2017

Englewood's first charter school plans to open in August 2017, and TriCity Academy organizers are now accepting applications from families wanting to enroll their children in the school.

Englewood Mayor Pro Tem Rick Gillit also is president of the TriCity Academy Charter School Board of Directors. He said obtaining approval to open the school has taken much longer and required a lot more work than expected.

“It has taken us three years to receive authorization to establish the academy from the Charter School Institute so we are finally ready to begin planning to open our school. It was a challenge but we have the OK and feel it is the right time for us to open our school,” he said. “We are not able right now to release the exact location of our school. We have a site we prefer and are still working out the details of how to convert the building into a home for our school. However, we can’t release the address until we have the site under contract, but I want everyone to know it is a location in the city of Englewood.”

The school plans to begin operation with 400 students in kindergarten through fifth grade. Expectations are that one grade will be added per year until the academy has classes for 600 students in kindergarten through eighth grade.

The school will use the Core Knowledge curriculum and students will not pay tuition to attend the academy.

Students will be required to wear uniforms and free breakfast will be offered prior to the start of each school day.

The academy will be independent and will not be a part of the Englewood School District. However, plans are to closely follow the same schedule as Englewood's elementary schools.

Those interested in signing up students to attend the academy can go the website at www.tricityacademy.org, click on the letter of intent tab and fill out the form. Also, those interested can e-mail the school at TriCityAcademyCO@gmail.org.
Surf’s Up as first river surfing park opens in Arapahoe County

ARAPAHOE COUNTY, Colo. -- For professional body boarder Eric Thomas, his love for surfing was born in Hawaii, but his passion for waves has brought him all the way to Colorado.

"In Hawaii we had this wave that was a river wave and we dug it out, and that's how I got introduced to river surfing, and then the addiction just started from there," described Thomas. "First and foremost, it's an endless wave. It's always there, it's dynamic, it comes up and down but I know I can find a wave."

Lucky for Thomas, that search for the perfect wave just got a lot easier.

"This entire project is to highlight the river and to reconnect the community with the river," said project engineer, Ben Nielsen of Merrick and Company.

On August 25, Nielsen will officially open the first two waves of the area's first river surfing park near Broken Tee Golf Course in Arapahoe County. The $14 million project is transforming a half-mile section of the South Platte River into six wave surfing features, as well as trails, a playground, restrooms and beach area. The project is funded through a partnership between the Urban Drainage and Flood Control District, City of Englewood, Colorado Water Conservation Board, South Suburban Parks and Recreation and Arapahoe County.

"The learning curve is quick. Once you learn the safety and the life jacket and a helmet and learning how the currents work, you're gonna [sic] be surfing in a matter of hours," Thomas said.

The park is free and open to the public but there are no lifeguards on duty. Surfers need to bring their own boards and are encouraged to wear life jackets and helmets.

"This is a public park, you don't have to pay to come out and use this. It's just like a park or a ball field like anywhere else. I think it's just a really unique experience for the community," Nielsen said.

Crews are slated to break ground on the second phase of the park in January of 2017. The third and final phase should wrap up by Summer of 2018.
Supporters gathered the required number of signatures on their petitions to place three marijuana-related questions on the November ballot.

City Clerk Lou Ellis said on Aug. 15 there are sufficient signatures on the petitions to place two dueling marijuana questions on the November ballot. One will ask voters to allow the sale of recreational marijuana in the city; the opposing question will ask voters to keep the existing ban on recreational marijuana sales.

On Aug. 16, Ellis said there were sufficient valid signatures for the third initiative to go on the ballot as well. It was turned in by proponents of recreational marijuana sales, and would limit the taxes that could be imposed on such sales.

Earlier, on Aug. 10, Ellis said: "The petitions for all three issues had more than the required number of signatures. Now our office must check each signature with voter records to make sure each set of petitions meets the requirement to have the signatures of at least 597 registered voters who live in the city of Englewood."

If the signatures on a set of ballot issue petitions are found to meet the requirement, the city clerk’s office notifies the city council of the sufficiency.

The city council has the option to pass an ordinance using wording of an initiative to make it law, or alternatively, the council can vote to approve placing the issue on the November ballot. If the council approves placing issues on the November ballot, the process must be completed by Sept. 9, the deadline to have issues placed on the ballot.

Presentation of the January 1, 2016 Actuarial Report

The GRS summary of the actuarial report was distributed to the Board and Ms. Thompson reviewed the draft January 1, 2016 Actuarial Report and the various assumptions used for the report. The study indicates a total required contribution of 25% of pay beginning 2016. The employer contributions would be 22% and the employee is 3%. This is up 1.2% from the total required 2016 contribution of 23.8%.

Mr. Wood reviewed the liability experience of the plan and the factors that influence the variance of the actuarial liability amount.

Mr. Yates left at 3:55 p.m.

Mr. Wood reviewed the studies for changing the mortality assumption used from RP-2000 with Improvement Scale BB to RP-2014 with 2-dimensional Improvement Scale MP-2015; decreasing the Discount Rate from 7.0% to 6.5% and a combination of the two studies.

The results of the changing the mortality table would increase the contribution from 25.0% to 26.5%. To decrease the Discount Rate increases the contribution from 25.0% to 30.3%. To change both the mortality table assumption and decrease the Discount Rate increases the contribution to 31.9%. The contribution rates include the 3.0% employee contribution.

Mr. Wood commented that changing to a more recent mortality table does not mean that the assumptions currently being used are not appropriate. Since this is a very small group, even two or three deaths in a year could have impact the results.

Mr. Wood explained the results of decreasing the Discount Rate means that there is less income generated from investment and increases the contributions necessary to fund benefits.

The Board discussed the studies presented. Ms. Rinkel asked about the impact if the amortization period was changed from 10 years to 15 years. Ms. Thompson said it would decrease the actuarially required contribution, but she did not know the amount.

Mr. Moore briefly reviewed some of the historical assumption changes that were agreed upon by the Board in an effort to reduced unfunded liability. He agreed that if GRS is supporting the use of the current mortality table that it would be acceptable to monitor assumption for a while. He inquired about Innovest’s expected return and Ms. Dominguez said that it is basically 6.5% for a five to ten year period, but the actuarial time frame is a much longer period of time. Ms. Thompson ask how it split for real return and inflation. Ms. Dominguez said their expectation for inflation is 2.25%. Discussion followed about the possible expectation of return in the portfolio and the risk changes that may be necessary as well as if it prudent with decreasing the discount rate in addition to lengthening the amortization periods. Mr. Wood commented that because the plan’s average age and it has twice as many inactive members as active, GRS would find it difficult for to support too long of an amortization period. Discussion ensued regarding various factors and the impact on the funding of the plan. The Board reviewed the options available. Ms. Thompson estimated the cost of providing the studies at $500-$875.

MR. MOORE MOVED TO APPROVE A $500 TO $875 EXPENSE FOR THE STUDIES OF A CHANGE OF EXTENDING THE TIERED AMORTIZATION TO FIFTEEN YEARS FROM TEN, CHANGING THE ENTIRE UNFUNDED LIABILITY TO A FIFTEEN YEAR AMORTIZATIONS AND THE NECESSARY NUMBER OF YEARS TO KEEP THE CONTRIBUTION LEVEL OF TWENTY-FIVE PERCENT. MR. PHELPS SECONDED.

Presentation of the Actuarial Studies

Ms. Thompson reviewed the details of the three actuarial assumption studies that the Board requested. The studies are:

1. Change the assumed rate of return from 7.0% to 6.5% and amortize the base due to the assumption change over 15 years.
2. Change the assumed rate of return from 7.0% to 6.5% and amortize the entire unfunded accrued liability (UAL) over 15 years so that as of the 2016 report there would be only one amortization base.
3. Change the assumed rate of return from 7.0% to 6.5% and amortize the entire unfunded accrued liability (UAL) over the years necessary to keep the total contribution at 25% of pay. As of the 2016 report, there would be only one amortization base.

Mr. Patel arrived at 4:05 p.m.

Ms. Thompson said the Exhibit 1 shows the impact on the funded ratio when the discount rate is changed. The funded ratio goes from 83.3% to 79.3% without any other change in assumptions.

The Board discussed the three scenarios on Exhibit 2 and the potential results of each.

Mr. Moore outlined his review of the studies and possibility of a solution that is reasonable for the Plan and the City’s budget. He prefers to reduce the discount rate to 6.5% and he does not recommend that the investment advisors move toward investments with more risk in an effort to achieve a higher percent return. He is concerned that if the Board does not make assumption changes, the City’s contributions may expect to increase each year because of the prior losses. The five year smoothing method is an appropriate assumption and helps to even out the gains or losses. He suggested that since the Board is revisiting the assumptions perhaps there is an opportunity to change the discount rate and reset the liability by resetting the actuarial value of assets to market value, so that, at this point in time, it is a true liability, and would keep the smoothing process going forward. These factors are justification for him to make the assumption changes that would extend the amortization base and help maintain the path that the Board has been on to fund the Plan.

Mr. Moore commented that the Plan’s mortality table is a little out of date. The actuaries are not seeing the losses in the Plan that would indicate a more current mortality table is necessary. His preference is to move to a more recent mortality table, lower the discount rate and reset the asset liability to see where the Plan’s funding would be at that point. He reviewed the impact from the GRS scenarios and considered the overall possible increase of contribution costs to the Plan. He compared the current costs, which may continue to increase if no changes are made, to the results of adding the discount rate reduction and adjusting the amortization changes. These changes provide the expectation of an increased contribution for 2017 and remove the known increase going forward because of not amortizing prior losses. His preference is to not extend the amortization period, but he is willing to do so to get a better measure of the assets. He suggested omitting the improvement of mortality table assumption at this time, but feels it should be reviewed in the next year or two. The studies being done by the Actuarial Society for the public sector plans may reflect an indication that the current mortality tables are sufficient. Board discussion ensued regarding the average age, retirement ages, the Plan’s experience and other issues.

The Board evaluated the projected contribution costs. Ms. Thompson said the cost of providing discount rate reduction, asset lost and mortality table all at once would be projected at 26.7%. She said that with making the discount rate change to 6.5% improves the probably of meeting the assumption and that improves the probably of having a more stable contribution rate. Mr. Moore said that the current contribution is 23.8% and the draft report indicates that if there are no assumption changes the contribution is 25.0%.

Chairperson Woodward asked Ms. Rinkel about the City’s expected budget increase. Ms. Rinkel said the budget increase target is 3% overall. Mr. Moore said that it is necessary for the Board to be sensitive to the City’s budget and maintains their responsibility is to the Plan to make sure there it has actuarially sound funding. Discussion followed regarding the Board’s fiduciary responsibility to the Plan. Chairperson Woodward pointed out that it appears the Plan may not see the continued long term increase of contributions if the assumptions are changed and the Plan is able to attain the 6.5% return as well as the other factors.

Mr. Moore commented that he wants to have a Plan that would be fully funded in fifteen years. He thinks that lower expectations on the discount rate is a step to dealing with the losses that have been incurred so he can be comfortable deviating from the past policy of using a ten year amortization each year. He would not be comfortable changing the amortization assumption to more than fifteen years to pay for benefits that were already accrued. Discussion followed related to the expectation that the rate of return for investments will be lower.

Ms. Thompson suggested with the changes the Board is making and potentially looking at changing the mortality tables next year that the Board may, in two years, consider evaluating the demographic assumptions. If there is a sustained period of economic downturn with lower investment returns, there will also be a period of stable salaries with lower retirement rates because more people will delay retirement. She suggested that in two years there may be better data to use when looking at demographic assumptions. She commented that moving forward with the reduced discount rate, resetting the market value provides the trade-off and the stabilization of the contribution rate going forward.

MR. MOORE MOVED TO APPROVE ASSUMPTION CHANGES FOR THE 2016 ACTUARIAL VALUATION:

1. REDUCE THE DISCOUNT RATE FROM 7.0% TO 6.5%
2. RESET THE ACTUARIAL VALUE OF ASSETS TO EQUAL THE MARKET VALUE OF ASSETS AS OF JANUARY 1, 2016 AND MAINTAINING THE CURRENT FIVE YEAR SMOOTHING OF ASSETS METHOD GOING FORWARD
3. THE ENTIRE UNFUNDED LIABILITY AS OF JANUARY 1, 2016, AFTER THE ABOVE CHANGES, WILL BE AMORTIZED OVER A FIFTEEN YEAR PERIOD WHILE MAINTAINING THE CURRENT 10 YEAR AMORTIZATION METHOD FOR FUTURE GAINS AND LOSSES (ONLY 2016 WILL BE RESET TO FIFTEEN YEARS AMORTIZATION)
4. IT IS THE BOARD’S INTENTION TO DO AN EXPERIENCE STUDY DURING THE NEXT YEAR OR TWO TO REVIEW THE CURRENT DEMOGRAPHIC ASSUMPTIONS, INCLUDING THE MORTALITY, TERMINATIONS, RETIREMENTS, AND SALARIES
MS. RINKEL SECONDED.
