The Corporation shall exist in perpetuity, from the date of filing of these Articles of Incorporation with the Secretary of State for the State of Colorado, unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE III

PURPOSES AND POWERS

1. Purposes. The Corporation is formed exclusively to lessen the burdens of government of the City of Englewood, Colorado (the "City"). The Corporation shall be permitted to perform every act necessary or incidental to or connected with the furtherance of its exempt purposes, including, but not limited to, taking title to certain land located in the Counties of Arapahoe and Douglas, State of Colorado, which was acquired by the City as a part of the acquisition of the McLellan Reservoir, and overseeing the development of such property in a manner which protects the water supply of the City of Englewood, Colorado.
2. Powers. In furtherance of the foregoing purposes and objects (but not otherwise) and subject to the restrictions in Section 3 of this Article, the Corporation shall have and may exercise all such powers as are expressly or indirectly conferred upon nonprofit corporations organized under the laws of the State of Colorado, except as limited by the Articles of Incorporation and including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, receiving, maintaining and dealing with, in any manner whatsoever, real or personal property, and using and applying the whole or any part thereof, including income therefrom; provided, however, that such use be exclusively and irrevocably applied to the exempt purposes of the Corporation; and the power to borrow money and become indebted and to execute and deliver bonds, notes, debentures, certificates of participation in lease or other revenues, or other securities, instruments or obligations, for the purposes of acquiring real or personal property, constructing, installing and acquiring improvements, and for such other purpose or purposes as may be necessary or desirable to accomplish the objectives of the Corporation. Such indebtedness may be unsecured or may be secured by any mortgage, trust deed or other lien upon the property to be acquired or any other right or interests of the Corporation.

3. Restrictions Upon the Powers of Directors and Others.

   A. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director or officer of the Corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable payments may be paid for expenses incurred on behalf of the Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any other private individual shall be entitled to share in any distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation or otherwise. Any and all property, both real and personal, which may be owned by this Corporation at any time, is and shall always be exclusively and irrevocably dedicated to the exempt purposes of this Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation. The Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

   B. No part of the assets of the Corporation shall be contributed to any organization whose net earnings or any part thereof inure to the benefit of any private individual or any substantial part of the activities of which consists of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, if such contribution would not be permitted to be made by a governmental unit described in Section 170(c)(1) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code") (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law).
C. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by a governmental unit described in Sections 170(c)(1) of the Code (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

D. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, after the liabilities of the Corporation have been discharged or provided for, the Corporation's remaining assets shall be transferred to the City of Englewood, Colorado.
