   x. Maja Sehic, a 12th Grader at Colorados Finest Alternative High School.
   xi. Nicholas Spence, an 8th Grader at Englewood Middle School.

c. Tom Parson discussed the Englewood Depot. He wanted to introduce himself so that Council can put a name to a face. Mr. Parson submitted a bid for the Depot. He is a letterpress printer. Mr. Parson has proposed a living museum for use of the Depot. He offers several diverse, repurposed opportunities if he is awarded the bid. He plans to use his savings and resources from his own collection at first and hopefully lead to a non-profit community benefit.

d. Diane Wray Tomasso discussed the Englewood Depot. She urged deed restrictions the last time and thanked Council for including it in this bid process. She wants the Depot to keep its historical value. She hopes the younger generation will enjoy working with their hands at the projects proposed, should Mr. Parson be awarded the bid. She has offered her services to the Parsons in various capacities. Ms. Tomasso hopes to write and receive grants to help fund diverse projects. She has offered her services to serve as curator. She praised Mr. Parson and looks forward to working with him.

e. David Sandusky was not present to discuss the Englewood Depot.
Peter Bergman discussed the Englewood Depot. He supports Mr. Parsons and has worked with him. Mr. Bergman believes in hands on teaching and believes that this is what would happen with Mr. Parson as the Depot owner. He spoke of the students who think highly of Mr. Parson as an instructor. He thinks the Depot could become an international destination with the equipment that Mr. Parson would feature. Mr. Parson is well known for his expertise in printing.

7. Recognition of Unscheduled Public Comment. (This is an opportunity for the public to address City Council. Council may ask questions for clarification, but there will not be any dialogue. Please limit your presentation to three minutes. Time for unscheduled public comment may be limited to 45 minutes, and if limited, shall be continued to General Discussion.)

Mayor Penn advised those present that Council will be discussing the Depot next Monday at the Study Session and that everyone is invited. They will be discussing the bids as well as the process to carry this project forward.

a. Kathy Lingo, a Denver resident, spoke regarding Tom Parsons and what he would bring to the Depot.

b. David Ashley, a Denver resident, said he is a calligrapher, and that he supports Tom Parson and his bid for the Depot. Letterpress is a magnet to draw people once they get started. He believes this would be a marvelous opportunity for Englewood.

c. Dave Paschal, an Englewood resident and past president of the Englewood Historical Society. The Historical Society wanted to create a museum with the Depot. They have many donated items from the past Society and are from this community's history. He believes the Depot should be a museum. Refurbish, rehabilitate, and restore the Depot so that it can be used and be historically viable.

d. Sharlene Barker, an Englewood resident, is a member of the Englewood Historic Society. She wants Council to consider the Society's hard work throughout the past year. Ms. Barker would like the Society to be awarded the bid. She believes the community involvement will make it a success. They have original plans, drawings and items for the Depot that could be utilized.

e. Ida Mae Nicholl, an Englewood resident, said she appreciated the article that Tom Munds wrote for The Herald regarding Cities of Service impact volunteerism for the community. She thinks this would be a wonderful project for the whole community and that there are many opportunities for everyone.

f. Owen Perkins, a Denver resident, said the talk about Tom Parson is centered on his expertise. He thinks Tom is a treasure, who inspires others, is active and who would create opportunities. He would be a remarkable resource.

g. Beverly Cummins, an Englewood resident, would like the groups to work together and do something positive for the community. She would like to have the miniature train group join them. She hopes that this project could bring people into the Englewood area. As long as the Depot sets as it is, no one will benefit.
