Motion carried.

6. Recognition of Scheduled Public Comment

(a) Jonathan Bush, Managing Partner -- Littleton Capital Partners, was not present to discuss the resolutions before Council.
(b) Lee Novak, Vice President for Development -- Western Region, Fore Property Company, was not present to discuss the resolutions before Council.

(c) Patty Brisbois, an Englewood resident, addressed City Council regarding zoning concerns. The issue discussed is the 2800 block of South Broadway, an auto dealership (5280 Auto Imports) is doing work at the edge of the alley. She believes this violates the noise ordinance, but also that the noise ordinance is very vague. This noise disturbs the quality of life. She is working with the Police Impact Team on this problem.

[Clerk’s Note: Mr. Novak and Mr. Bush entered late into the meeting and spoke after Ms. Brisbois.]

(b) Lee Novak, Vice President for Development -- Western Region, Fore Property Company, discussed resolutions before Council. They are looking forward to working with the City of Englewood. They have made arrangements with Littleton Capital Partners to take over the project, with the City’s approval for the transfer.

(a) Jonathan Bush, Managing Partner -- Littleton Capital Partners, discussed the resolutions before Council. He believes that they have developed a good site and that the arrangements with Fore Property Company are good. They are excited with them stepping into their shoes. They should be good for Englewood. He doesn’t believe the incentive package will change much. He is sorry to be stepping away and thanked staff and Council for their support. He hopes to have another project with the City in the future.
