

YOUTH

Boards AND Commissions

The City of Englewood has several boards, commissions and authorities made up of citizens, local business people, city employees and others who take an active interest in the city.

Receive a letter of recommendation.

Gain community service hours.

Serving on a board, commission or authority provides an opportunity for you to make a difference in your community. All boards and commission work closely with city council and city staff, often making recommendations on ways to improve the quality of services and quality of life for the residents of Englewood.

The City of Englewood is looking for youth (9-12th grade) members to serve on the following boards:

Cultural Arts Commission

Parks and Recreation Commission

Public Library Board

The Youth Member Serves a One-Year-Term: August to May

Learn more and apply at:
englewoodco.gov/boards-commissions

YOUTH

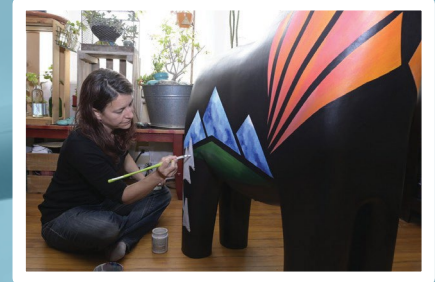

Boards AND Commissions

Cultural Arts Commission:

The Cultural Arts Commission is a citizen-based group focused on the planning and development of cultural art activities in the City of Englewood and the implementation of an arts plan for the community.

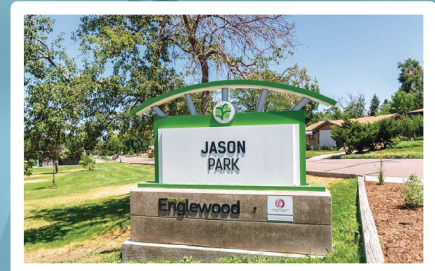

Meetings: 1st Wednesday of each month at 5:45 p.m.

Parks and Recreation Commission:

The Parks and Recreation Commission reviews plans and projects proposed for Englewood's parks and recreation services.

Meetings: 2nd Thursday of every month at 5:30 p.m.

Public Library Board:

The Englewood Public Library board reviews plans and policies regarding the operation of the Library.

Meetings: 3rd Thursday of every month at 6:00 p.m.

The City of Englewood is looking for youth (9-12th grade) members to serve on the above boards.

Reasons to Join:
Letter of Recommendation
Community Service Hours
Make a Difference in Your Community

The Youth Member Serves a One-Year-Term: August to May

Learn more and apply at:
englewoodco.gov/boards-commissions

